Fall 2009

Hello to the Great Class of 1998:

As we enter our twelfth year out of Princeton, I just wanted to congratulate everyone on how well they are holding up! I can't quite believe that I have reached the age where I can say I've known my freshman year friends for 15 years. I write this letter from the couch of one of those friends living in Lausanne, Switzerland, who I believe traveled the furthest of anyone to attend our 11th Reunion in May – Bravo! For most of the rest of us living abroad or far from Princeton, it's a bit harder to get back for events big or small...so I encourage everyone who lives near Princeton or Boston to attend the games below and represent our class well!

Upcoming Events

This fall, save the following dates as the HYP rivalries continue:

- Princeton vs. Harvard Football Game/Tiger Tent in Cambridge, MA
 - Saturday, October 24, 2009, 10:30 AM to 6:00 PM (kickoff is at 12:00 PM)
 - This is the largest gathering of Princetonians outside of Princeton, NJ!
 - Food/drinks for sale, PU Band and other entertainment, and much, much more at the Biennial Tiger Tent Celebration.

- Princeton vs. Yale Football Game/Tailgate in Princeton, NJ
 - Saturday, November 14, 2009, 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM (kickoff is at 1:00 PM)
 - With food & drinks for sale, and with the PU Band for entertainment, the Tailgate will be located in Jadwin Gymnasium.

Order your tickets early for either game by calling the Princeton Athletics Ticket Office at 609-258-3538. Our class is not currently planning to have specific tables at either event, but if you would like to be a host, contact me at emarnold@alumni.princeton.edu.

Class Notes

Of course, if you attend either event or have other highly relevant info that you would like to share with the class, please send it to Massie Ritsch at meritsch@alumni.princeton.edu. He will accept any and all of your updates regarding big or mini-reunions, weddings, babies, promotions, travel – and don't forget those photos!

Class Historian opening

Have you often wondered who is in charge of maintaining the legacy of our class, like keeping an archive of our orange togas, our original t-shirts illustrated by New Yorker cartoonist & member of our grandfather class Henry Martin '48, or photos of our 1998 banner's ascent up a distant mountain peak? Have you ever wondered if you could be the one selected for such a fun task?? Well, wonder no further – the class of 1998 is looking for a Class Historian or two to help us remember our good ole days when we reach the point where we can't remember those good ole days.

The full position description is available on our class website at <http://www.Princeton98.org> and those who are interested should email me at emarnold@alumni.princeton.edu.

Class Dues are still only $35 – 11 years strong!

Hats off to our 3-term class Treasurer Jon Lurie for his solid grasp of (legal) fiscal machinations so that we remain the only class who has not raised our dues rate since graduation. We do need your help to keep this distinction so we encourage all of you to take a minute to send in your class dues. Remember: if you pay your class dues, you and a guest will not have to pay for off-year reunions.

You can pay on line with ease at: <http://www.princeton98.org>.

If you are sending a check, you should mail it to Class Treasurer, Jon Lurie, at:
Jon Lurie, 21 Pinewood Farm Court, Owings Mills, MD 21117

One final reminder of your next steps after finishing this letter: Football, Class Notes, Historian?, Pay Dues, Relax and Check Facebook.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Arnold
